

Which is the correct form?

Remember - not all of these statements can use the present perfect tense!

1. I have been/went to Paris twice, but want to go again soon!
2. She has been/went to Paris last year, but wants to go again soon!
3. I have never been/didn't go to a foreign country, but I am saving so I can.
4. Last year I have never been/didn't go to a foreign country, but I will this year.
5. I have never visited/didn't visit Rome, but I love Roman history.
6. He loves Roman history, and he visited/has visited Rome many times.
7. I tried/have tried bungee jumping last summer, and it was terrifying!
8. We tried/have tried bungee jumping a few times, but don't want to do it again.
9. I tried/have tried snowboarding last winter, and it was amazing.
11. He is trying/has been trying to learn English for years.
12. I saw/have seen a ghost last night!
13. Did you/Have you ever seen a ghost?
14. This is the worst movie I saw/have seen.
15. It was the most delicious food I ate/have eaten in my life.

