

Can you choose the most appropriate adjective for each sentence?

1. It's so today, I'm sweating!

nice hot cold

2. That picture is! It's just so beautiful.

ugly exciting lovely

3. I had a very vacation. I slept on the beach, had a massage, and ate takeaway every day.

relaxing interesting stressful

4. Work is very at the moment. I have so much to do, and my new boss is very strict.

relaxing stressful fun

5. That rollercoaster is really

excited exciting funny

6. I was so when I was on that rollercoaster.

excited exciting funny

7. There's no way you will pass the test, it's You haven't studied at all!

difficult easy impossible

8. Sandy used to drive very , but because of his accident he drives more slowly now.

quick rapid fast

9. The day I got married was the day of my life.

happier happiest

10. That new horror movie is the movie I've ever seen!

scarier scariest

11. You nearly broke a window! You need to be more careful careless caring

12. My old house was close to my office, but my new house is quite near farther far

13. My new coworker is very If she isn't more polite, I think someone will get angry with her.

rude angry loud

14. I can't afford a new phone. They're all too cheap expensive efficient

15. Simone had been working 15 hours a day all week, and she was extremely tired tiring tireless

16. Ugh, the last dish was delicious, but this one is I can't eat it!

yummy ugly disgusting

17. He has a Ph. D so I think he must be very athletic clever annoying

18. She runs marathons, swims 14 kilometers every day, and teaches yoga, so I think she must be very

athletic clever annoying

19. My little brother is so He keeps trying to make me angry by hiding my things.

athletic clever annoying

20. I don't want to spend my vacation somewhere normal, I want to go somewhere unusual and expensive exotic cold

Find more free English activities at <https://denwasensei.com/category/free-english-activities/>

