

Which is the correct or more appropriate adverb?

1. I can't dance, but I dance well/good.
2. I will never get in a car with him. He drives far too dangerously/dangerous.
3. Don't worry if you can only study English 5 minutes a day. It is better to study slow/slowly than not at all.
4. It's difficult to buy clothes for him. He dresses so fashionable/fashionably, and I don't know anything about fashion.
5. I will have to work very hard/hardly to finish this project by the deadline.
6. My daughter is failing all her exams. I'm not surprised, because she hard/hardly studies.
7. When you give a presentation, you must remember to speak clearly/loudly.
8. If we finish our work quick/quickly, we will have time to eat before the game.
9. It was a challenge, but the team worked tirelessly/effortlessly to finish the project on time.
10. She dances so tirelessly/effortlessly that it's like she was born to be a dancer.
11. He lived in Australia for ten years, so speaks English quickly/fluently.
12. He speaks so quiet/quietly that I never know what he's saying.

13. I thought I'd failed the test, but surprisingly/unsurprisingly I passed!
14. She didn't study for the test, and surprisingly/unsurprisingly she failed.
15. I think Sophie is angry with me. She spoke so coldly/warmly to me this morning. What did I do?
16. When we arrived at the hotel, we were greeted coldly/warmly by the staff, like we were old friends.
17. She's new to the job, but handled her first project so professionally/unprofessionally I think she's going to be a great coworker.
18. It's ok to have fun at work, but you mustn't act professionally/unprofessionally.
19. "I wonder how he knew I would be here," she said thoughtfully/thoughtlessly.
20. "You are looking bit fat. Did you put on weight?" he said thoughtfully/thoughtlessly.

Find more free English activities at <https://denwasensei.com/category/free-english-activities/>

